

Future Brixton

Windrush square

Windrush extravaganza to open Brixton's new square

Windrush Square in Brixton will open to the public on Saturday 27 and Sunday 28 February 2010.

Come along to see live music and performances, a spectacular human Catherine wheel, and a lantern-lit procession by local children. This is the first of many community events to take place in this new space at the heart of Brixton.

www.lambeth.gov.uk/futurebrixton

Weekend programme for events

Saturday 27 February

1pm onwards

- Live music performances from Stockwell Good Neighbours Choir, The Illersapians, Southside Harmonics, Centro Desportivo Cultural Portugues, and FLOetic Lara as well as dance demonstrations from the Larkhall Street Dance Academy. The MC for the day will be Fayon Cottrell and watch out for DJ Daddy Ernie who will be promoting the NHS Lambeth Stop Smoking Campaign.

- Family art workshops.
- Video box for the recording of Windrush memories.
- Stalls by Spacemakers and Brixton Village including Brixton Pound.

4.30pm

- Lantern-lit procession led by local school children leaves Brixton Station Road and tours Brixton town centre, ending at Windrush Square.
- The procession will also be joined by the magnificent fire-breathing Phoenix.

5.00pm

- Mayor of Lambeth to welcome the procession into the new square followed by a short finale.

Sunday 28 February

1pm - 4pm

- Family activities and art workshops on Windrush Square throughout the afternoon.

Come along and join the celebrations!